"Have had many moves over years, and generally had poor to very bad experiences with Agents, so naturally we started from a sceptical base! Have to say Hayman-Joyce Broadway have been great, attentive and given good advice. Some 20 viewings all done by Hayman-Joyce Broadway resulted in a sale at our asking price. Would certainly recommend Hayman-Joyce Broadway."

How we value your property

The Cotswolds and Vale of Evesham are full of unique and interesting properties and your market appraisal relies on our extensive local knowledge and experience.

There are a number of factors we consider before, during and after our visit. These are:

- The location and size of your property
- The accommodation, condition, alterations and improvements you have made
- Key selling features: ancillary accommodation, land, home office, leisure facilities, technology
- Residential development or planning opportunities
- Market conditions – supply and demand – the economy and any Government incentives
- Your own objectives and expectations are also important factors

We use our unrivalled back catalogue of sold properties for comparable evidence, and we also research relevant and up to date information on recent property transactions.

“Friendly, professional and knowledgeable. We highly recommend our new 'hanging gate' for sale board, not only to locate your property but to 'spread the word' and maximise the number of potential buyers.

The glossy magazines and public relations

We endeavour to get exposure in the press for your home. Which publications we approach depends on your type of property and special features or opportunities they present. We regularly advertise in the Cotswold Life. We also advertise in Horse and Hound, Country Life and The Telegraph and The Times.

"Not sure if it was fate or luck but so pleased that Hayman-Joyce Broadway had been recommended to us. Charlie Comber popped over to carry out the valuation and from there on he was firmly on our side. Fruitless viewings, changes of mind and demanding potential buyers were brushed aside with a constant 'upwards and onwards' attitude, nothing was too much trouble. When we finally secured an offer, all the stops were pulled out in order to achieve completion by our deadline. Faultless customer service and a very happy client."

"Hayman-Joyce Broadway managed our sale very professionally and worked hard in spite of two false starts with buyers (one right on the day of exchange). I appreciated the whole team working to make this process as painless as possible. Thank you for all your help".

Viewings & feedback

We always qualify buyers to match them to your property's location, size and features to avoid unnecessary viewings.

We recommend using our trained sales team to conduct the viewings of your property. Our viewing team are trained to overcome any concerns potential buyers may have and we provide helpful local information to potential buyers based on their needs.

Within 48 hours of a viewing we will contact the potential buyer and make sure we 'dig' a little deeper to find out what they think about your property.

Once we have completed this discussion we will contact you with feedback on the viewing.

If your property has not sold, we offer a full review meeting every four weeks over a coffee, to evaluate the reasons why it has not sold, and review future marketing and sales strategies.

"Hayman-Joyce Broadway were very helpful and knowledgeable, a pleasure to deal with. Would definitely use at any time. Thank you, keep up the good work."

We have considerable experience in the art of negotiation and will always seek to achieve the best possible deal for you.

We seek clarification of the buyer's financial circumstances as soon as they make an offer on your property. As part of this we carry out checks on any property related sale the buyer may have and any chain details.

Any offers received will be presented and discussed with you within 24 hours of receipt.

We carry out checks in accordance with Anti-Money Laundering Regulations.

“From the start of the sale process to completion Charlie Comber and his team at Hayman-Joyce Broadway were a great help and support. Prior to launch, from our initial enquiry to listing the property, they made the whole process transparent and stress free. Hayman-Joyce Broadway had a valuable register of interested parties and Charlie’s advice pre and post offer saved several headaches. After we accepted an offer he was always available to deal with solicitors/buyers queries and was a steady and comfortable hand during the wait to complete. I have no hesitation in recommending him and his team for the good, old fashioned, impeccable, efficient and polite service they provided.”
